

Saskatchewan Right to Know Committee

September 28, 2009

NEWS RELEASE – ‘RIGHT TO KNOW’ WEEK KICK OFF

‘Right to Know’ Week celebrates the right of individuals to access information held by public bodies and marks the importance of transparent government.

On September 28, the public is invited to come out to the University of Regina, Riddell Centre between 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. (contest occurs at 12:00 noon) and participate in the festivities and have a chance to “unlock the door to your Right to Know” and WIN A FREE USB KEY OR A LAPTOP COMPUTER!! Saskatchewan Information and Privacy Commissioner, Gary Dickson will be on hand to inform students and the public about their “right to know.”

- 30 -

For more information contact:

Saskatchewan Information and Privacy Commissioner
Toll free: 1-877-748-2298 / Telephone (306) 787-8350
Fax: (306) 798-1603
Email: sdashney@oipc.sk.ca
Websites: .oipc.sk.ca / ://www.righttoknow.ca/